Powerful!
Compact head sizes
are perfect for difficult jobs in small areas

Great for removing tile, wood, laminate, stone, carpet, roofing, and even ice, the Brutus® Reversible Scraper is also excellent for use in tight areas. It features a unique reversible blade which can be easily converted from 5 inches to 3 inches, depending on the worksite needs. The hardened steel blade can be re-sharpened with a grinder or file when necessary. Built with the user in mind, the galvanized steel shaft of the Brutus 62960 has a curved, ergonomic handle that reduces fatigue.

Brutus, the new name in professional tiling tools.
